Kidnapers Galva Banker Sentenced

Cambridge, Ill., Feb. 27—(UP)— Four men who kidnaped Earl Yo-cum, wea'thy Galva banker, but were outwitted by his wife into freeing him without receiving a cent of ransom, today faced terms of seven years each in state prison.

The men, Orville and Harry Whiskers, Lloyd Winslow and Vernon Ahlgren, p'eaded guilty and were sentenced yesterday by Judge L. E. Tellen who heard testimony by them and Mr. and Mrs. Yocum.

Judge Tellen said he did not make the sentences heavier because the men all had good reputations up to veterans lean bill was enacted into the time of the kidnaping last Oct.

> Yocum, who was held prisoner several days, testified he was well treated. Mrs. Yocum, who exchangmoney, testified she and her husband capture of the four men.

"I feel," she said, "that our liberty has been taken away from us. We must be on constant guard. They should be punished.

BECAUSE HE LOVED HER.

A Philadelphia youth the other day put a revolver and a pair of handcuffs in his pocket and went to call on his girl friend, with whom he had recently had a quarrel He tried to make her go away with him, and prepared to use revolver PROMPT TREATMENT IS VITAL and handcuff to gain his end; but before he could succeed the police arrived and lugged him off to jail, where he was formally charged with assault and battery, carrying concealed weapons and forcible entry.

Undismayed, however, he insisted that he loved her more dition which is invariably frequent than ever, and declared that he "only wanted to get her into when there are epidemics of colds." my car so we could elope and be married."

One's first reaction to all of this is to remark that the young man must have had a queer notion of love. To threaten a girl with revolver and handcuffs does not seem a proper matter taken from such ears, a germ dangerous aspects of the condition. nership business; every citizen is a proof of affection, and the ordinary swain would hardly try of the streptococcus group is found. to compel a girl to marry him if she did not want to.

Nevertheless, it is worth noticing that love, now and then, is precisely like that. The poets and novelists of the roman-entirely to tre ear and after the ruptic school have given us a picture that is occasionally false, ture of the ear drum spontaneously or Love usually suffers long and is kind; but there are times through opening by a physician, the when it produces a terrible explosion, and in such cases its infectious material will discharge, the temperature drop and the paunlucky object and its unlucky possessor are apt to find tient recover. If it causes a of the appendix or of the intestinal good proportion of all of the joy and beauty that exist in the tract. world, it also causes a great deal of suffering. It can lead one up on mystic mountain peaks, and it can pull one down into a kind of hell. We prefer to talk and write as if it had into a kind of hell. We prefer to talk and write as if it had adults, and that when the joints are they won in the last election. only the former potentiality. But all too often it works both Incidents like this one in Philadelphia are not very rare, after all. Ever and again something similiar pops up in the newspapers. A supposedly placid and law-abiding citizen suddenly kills his wife, or someone else's wife, and protests that he did it because he loved her. The rest of us scoff cynically—but in many cases these people are quite sincere.

All of this is not quite the same as saying that love is a kind of madness. It would be more apt to call it a very powerful stimulant. If the person who comes under its influence is normally strong and self-reliant, he or she can live through it unharmed, and can draw a great deal of strength and wisdom from the experience. But when love lights on someone who is weak, impetuous or headstrong to begin with-as it does, now and then-it often means but tragedy.

THE BLIND AND THE MOVIES.

A blind man in a southern city recently went with a friend to a moving picture theater, to kill time during a wait between trains. The blind man, naturally, could not see the pictures, but he could enjoy the sound effects and as his friend occasionally whispered a brief description of the scenes he was able to enjoy his visit.

What we wish to record here, however, is that the theater manager refused to accept the blind man's money; and following on this incident, all of the moving picture theaters of that particular city passed a rule providing that a blind person could be admitted free if he were accompanied by a friend who could see. And it occurs to us that this is a good idea, which deserves copying. It would not cost the theater people anything appreciable, as the number of blind persons who would take advantage of it would be small; and it would occasionally bring to a blind person a bit of recreation that otherwise would be missed.

POETS AND GOVERNORS.

One of the interesting stories of the winter is the news that the governor of New Mexico has appointed Witter Bynner, poet, to his official staff with the rating of colonel.

All governors, so far as we know, have these official staffs, and most of them honor various prominent citizens in their respective states by making officers out of them; but this is the first time, to our knowledge, that a poet has been so honored. It looks like a good idea.

Of course, not every state has a poet worthy of the rank of colonel. The modest gold bar of a second lieutenant would be ample for the run of mine versifier, and there are some who would have to be content with a non-com's rating. But the idea is attractive. We are thrilled, for instance, at the thought of dainty Edna St. Vincent Millay becoming a major

A DINING-ROOM TRAGEDY!

TABLES spread with delicious food . . . most of it soft, highly refined—lacking in the "bulk" and iron your body must have to keep well and strong.

This is the dining-room trag-edy that occurs daily in mil-lions of homes. No wonder most people suffer from consti-pation. No wonder headaches, backaches, and dull days are frequent!

Just add one delicious food to your table—and you will help correct all this suffering. Add Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in some form every day.

ALL-BRAN adds the necessary "bulk" or "roughage"—and iron—that is so often lacking in our diet today. This bulk is needed to prevent constipation-to sweep the system clean of poisonous wastes—to exercise the intestines and keep

ALL-BRAN is delicious as a cereal with milk or cream. Sprinkle over other cereals or use in cooking.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases with each meal. At your grocer's—in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

To keep life from growing too duil in Red Thrush, lown, GIX-GER ELLA TOLLIVER, daughter of a minister and stepdnughter of the wealthy and Indulgent former PHIL VAN OOORN, organized a Junior Country Club,

BARD HOLLOWAY, a young artist who was hoboing through the country, atopped in Red Thrush. Attracted by Ginger, he agreed to siny and paint portraits and decorate the clubhouse. He suggested sending to Chicago for MICOLO CALLENO, who could cook and sing and strum a guitar. But Nicolo could not come. In his place came three of his countrymen, ANGELO could play PTETRO could cook them on. Beginning to realize he was in love with Ginger, there was in love with Ginger, Bard suggested leaving. But Phil persuaded him o stay longer as their guest, and the wrote to SPEED RONEY, a former friend of Ginger's, and invited him. She felt he would give Bard some competition.

Give Bard some competition.

Ginger met this move by inviting PATTY SEARS to take care of Speed. When Speed wired that he was bringing his slater she also persuaded EDDY JACKSON to come, and Eddy decided to ball things up by keeping Ginger and Mard separated. This he did Speed's sixter's nickname was COTTON. Eddy decilishly contrived to keep her and Bard together while he struck to Ginger and paired Patty off with Speed. Everyone had a miscrable time.

Everyone had a miserable time.

Meanwhile, Benito had made a trip to Chicago and returned with presents for all and a pina to kidnap Ginger and hold her for ransom. He bided his time, When Speed, not knowing how matters stood, told Bard that Ginger and Eddy were engaged, Bard determined to leave. At that point of the proceedings Ginger disappeared. Shortly afterward a note was found, containing a demand for $30,000. Phil immediately wired to Chicago for the money and a pair of private detectives.

A basket containing a carrier pigeon was delivered at the Tolliver home with instructions to fasten the money in its pouch and release it. While they talked the pigeon escaped in the room. Bard recaptured it and identified it as Benito's bird.

How Weak Nervous Women Grow Stronger Feel Better, LookYounger and Have Steadier Nerves

If you only knew - you rundown, anemic women — who are dragging yourself around on your "nerve" what a wonderful increase in strength and health Tanlac will give you, you wouldn't hesitate a moment about going to your druggist and getting a big bottle of this splendid medicine.

Mrs. Dora Robillard, of Bellingham, Mass., R.F.D. 1, Box 17, says: "I had no digestion nor appetite. Sick headaches laid me up in bed three days at a time. I couldn't even do light house-work. Now I do all our cooking and washing in addition to the other work.' Tanlac is as free from harmful drugs as the water you drink—only Nature's own medicinal tonic herbs. Druggists know this and for the past 10 years have recommended it to men and women who need a quick "pick up" that will put them on their feet and give them a new interest in life. So confident are the makers of Tan-lac that if you are not helped by it, you get your money back on request.
